Baby, it's cold outside... Pamela Alvarado, the Romero family's loyal press secretary, finally plucks up the courage to tell her deliciously gorgeous eligible boss, Troy Romero, how she truly feels about him. But when she goes to share her feelings with him one evening, she bumbles into a humiliating and heartbreaking situation when she learns that he's...getting married! But it's warm in here... Sexy billionaire philanthropist, Troy Romero, is reluctantly entering into a loveless marriage to spoiled heiress, Cilla de Montagio, so she can keep her fortune. Yet it is his faithful, yet feisty, press secretary, Pamela, who really has his heart. So, stranded in a blizzard during a power outage with Pamela over the holiday season can only spell trouble. The blizzard brings the chill, but it looks as if Pamela will melt Troy's defenses. Now he's got one heck of a storm brewing inside him, too. Does he fulfill his obligation to the heiress who once saved his life, or does he follow his heart to the woman of his desire? The pressure is on for the last of the Belmont brothers to marry or settle down before his father passes away and in order to keep his inheritance in the Belmont Hotel Empire.

Gorgeous hotel heir and social recluse Leonardo Belmont doesn't know if he'll be able to fulfill his father's dying wish. He's already been hurt in love and plagued with guilt over his late wife's mysterious death. He's got way too much baggage to get close to another woman. That is until he meets a lovely damsel in distress, a hot blond with a sweet hint of a Jamaican accent, on the beach. A relationship is the last thing on missing pet response volunteer Honesty Moore's mind. Her ex-fiancé called off their wedding and decided to elope with her maid of honor instead--her best friend. But she won't let that bring her down. As they say in Jamaica, worrying doesn't solve problems. Needless to say, her heart has a wall around it to protect her.

And she's focusing on a new life when she moves back to Belmont taking care of her late grandmother's old cottage on the lake. But when she bumps into her neighbor, too-sexy-for-his-own-good Leonardo Belmont, on the beach, he derails her plans into a sea of forbidden territory. Will he melt the protective wall she built around her heart? Can two broken hearts find true love together? Nicholas Blitzen Holliday's jet-setting lifestyle is disrupted when his billionaire father cuts off his trust fund and calls him home--along with his brothers--to beautiful Prince William Sound in the Gulf Coast of Alaska. Beautiful Magdalena Johnson is recruited away from her small, but successful event planning business in Lexington, Kentucky to help Nick manage the Department of Marketing and Event Planning from Blitzen Island. She has no idea she'll be reporting directly to Nicholas, the love of her life she adamantly left behind after a brief, whirlwind Paris romance from her final days as an exchange student for Queen's University. She didn't even know his last name or that they nicknamed him

Blitzen, and certainly didn't appreciate his "trust-fund baby" set of friends. Can these two find their way through their differences in order to arrive at their happily ever after? The king of this generation undid his armor and returned to the field, becoming a beautiful CEO's bodyguard. He had wanted to be a small bodyguard in peace, but one beauty after another came rushing towards him. Life had also changed dramatically ... A case of mistaken identity landed Devon McShay on the receiving end of a mind-blowing kiss—from her new client! CEO Cal Logan was an undeniably handsome man, and despite their business relationship, Devon couldn't help thinking about kissing him again. When a crippling ice storm traps them in Salzburg for Christmas, sharing a room is their only option. And sharing a bed becomes their pleasure. Could this passionate encounter evolve into anything more than a holiday affair? A leadership and career manifesto told through the narrative of one of today's most inspiring, admired, and successful global leaders. In Winners Dream, Bill McDermott—the CEO of the world's largest business software company, SAP—chronicles how relentless optimism, hard work, and disciplined execution embolden people and equip organizations to achieve audacious goals. Growing up in working-class Long Island, a sixteen-year-old Bill traded three hourly wage jobs to buy a small deli, which he ran by instinctively applying ideas that would be the seeds for his future success. After paying for and graduating college, Bill talked his way into a job selling copiers door-to-door for Xerox, where he went on to rank number one in every sales position he held and eventually became the company's youngest-ever corporate officer. Eventually, Bill left Xerox and in 2002 became the unlikely president of SAP's flailing American business unit. There, he injected enthusiasm and accountability into the demoralized culture by scaling his deli, sales, and management strategies. In 2010, Bill was named co-CEO, and in May 2014 became SAP's sole, and first non-European, CEO. Colorful and fast-paced, Bill's anecdotes contain effective takeaways: gutsy career moves; empathetic sales strategies; incentives that yield exceptional team performance; and proof of the competitive advantages of optimism and hard work. At the heart of Bill's story is a blueprint for success and the knowledge that the real dream is the journey, not a preconceived destination. With expanding world markets and increased

This revised and updated edition of Nesheim's underground Silicon Valley bestseller incorporates twenty-three case studies of successful start-ups, including tables of wealth showing how much money founders and investors realized from each venture. The phenomenal success of the initial public offerings (IPOs) of many new internet companies obscures the fact that fewer than six out of 1 million business plans submitted to venture capital firms will ever reach the IPO stage. Many fail, according to start-up expert John Nesheim, because the entrepreneurs did not have access to the invaluable lessons that come from studying the real-world venture experiences of successful companies. Now they do. Acclaimed by entrepreneurs the world over, this practical handbook is filled with hard-to-find information and guidance covering every key phase of a start-up, from idea to IPO: how to create a winning business plan, how to value the firm, how venture capitalists work, how they make their money, where to find alternative sources of funding, how to select a good lawyer, and how to protect intellectual property.

Nesheim aims to improve the odds of success for first-time high-tech entrepreneurs, and offers an insider's perspective from firsthand experience on one of the toughest challenges they face -- convincing venture capitalists or investment banks to provide financing. This complete, classic reference tool is essential reading for first-time high-tech entrepreneurs, and entrepreneurs already involved in a start-up who want to increase their chances of success to rise to the top.
